

10 affiliate programs, you can forget AdSense (7 mins read)

Description

The content creation business is prevailing like never before. Most of us are involved in this field, either as an audience or as a creator. The creators who have opted to make a website or blog, look for methods like affiliate programs that pay per click, programs that pay per sale or selling courses, etc. to earn money. Now one of the most famous methods to monetize your blog is to register with advertisement networks that pay per click. So, WealthDrift has brought you the top 10 alternative ad networks to Google AdSense.

1. Media.net

Media.net is one of the most popular ads programs that you can join for free and earn money. It is amongst the top 5 largest Adtech companies in the world. It has great products for both publishers & advertisers and supplies ads to over 5,00,000 websites.

For WordPress users, Media.net does not have any specific plugin. You can place ad codes on your website to display ads. You will get real-time reporting on your dashboard. It offers 24*7 phone support to its users.

There is as such no minimum traffic requirement to get the approval. But since the majority of the users of Media.net are from the US, UK, or Canada, they prefer websites with the majority of traffic from these countries. Also, your website content should be original and in English only.

Earnings: It works on effective CPM (Calculated by dividing the total earnings from an ad campaign by the total number of impressions on that campaign). So there is no fixed amount that you are paid per click in this affiliate program. Your earnings will depend on your traffic and the Click-through Rate (CTR).

Procedure to apply: All you need to do is to fill in three details – Your Website Name, Email address, and Country of Residence. The registration is free of cost. You can sign up for Media.net by clicking on this link.

2. Revenuehits

Revenuehits is one of those affiliate programs that pay per click and are free to use. It is an ad network by Intango founded in 2008. It has worked with 20k+ websites with more than 3 billion impressions per day. Revenuehits excludes ads that are related to gambling, hacking, etc that users can find inappropriate.

For placing ads, you will have to place ad codes in the source code of your website. Here, you don't get real-time tracking of your revenue. Your dashboard will display the performance up to the previous day.

No minimum traffic is required to get approved from Revenuehits because there is no approval process in place.

Earnings: It works on CPM (Cost per mille or cost per thousand impressions) and CPA (Cost per action) models. The CPM can vary from a few cents to $50.

Procedure to apply: The process is very simple. You just need to sign up and you will get an activation email instantly. Now select your device type, type of ads, and place ads on your website. There is no registration fee to join this ad network. You can sign up for Revenuehits by clicking on this link.

3. Skimlinks

Skimlinks is one of the most famous affiliate programs that pay per click which provides ad campaigns for websites that produce commercial content and product reviews. It works with 60k+ publishers with 48k+ merchants.

WordPress users can get access to their special plugin which will help you integrate Skimlinks with your website effortlessly and perfectly. Other users can simply place ad codes in the source code of their website to publish ads. On your dashboard, you will get various real-time reports like real-time clicks, revenue reports, etc.

Skimlinks does not mention the minimum traffic criteria required for getting the approval. But they say, "The more traffic, the bigger the opportunity to earn – but smaller, engaged and active audiences can be just as lucrative."

Earnings: You earn through effective clicks on the ads. You can also refer others to use Skimlinks through your referral id and then earn 35% of what Skimlinks earn through the referral you made.

Procedure to apply: You need to furnish the details given on this page to register with Skimlinks and get paid per click in this affiliate program. You can start displaying ads once your application gets approved. The registration is free of cost. This process generally takes 2 business days.

4. Infolinks

Infolinks is a global advertising platform for advertisers and publishers. It supports over 3,50,000 websites in 128 countries. It focuses on contextual-related ads (ads relevant according to your content) making it one of the best ad networks to get registered on. They have impressive advertisers like Netflix, Kia, etc. that sets it apart from the competitors.

To display ads on your website you have to paste the code on your website and you are done. You can use Infolinks along with Google AdSense. Your dashboard will display real-time performance reports.

There is no minimum traffic requirement to get approved from Infolinks. So, small publishers can also get paid per click on this affiliate program.

Earnings: Your revenue per thousand impressions (RPM) can be $4-$6 for your ad campaign. Here also you get an opportunity to get paid for referrals and earn 10% of the revenue generated by that referral on the platform.

Procedure to apply: Fill the form on this page to submit your website for approval. The registration is free of cost. Infolinks will get back to you within 48hrs of your application which is a good thing.

5. Outbrain

Outbrain is one of the most popular affiliate programs that pay per click. Currently, it supports over 220k websites globally with 344 billion monthly impressions. It is for publishers who want to use native advertising to monetize their websites. Native advertising is a type of advertising where the advertisements match the form of website they appear on. For example, the advertisement can be in the form of an article written in the same format on an editorial page of a magazine.

It helps publishers to promote others' content on their website for money and they can also promote their content on other websites to boost their traffic. They have advertisers of the likes of CNN, Hearst, etc.

The minimum traffic required to get your website approved from Outbrain is 3 Million monthly US pageviews.

Earnings: Outbrain boasts of high RPM in the range of $5 to $10 per ad campaign. They also help publishers to increase their performance by analyzing your site and tweaking their ads according to it from time to time.

Procedure to apply: You have to fill the contact us form on their website. After this, their sales team will contact you and you can start with monetization after the approval. No registration fees are charged from the publishers.

But before you monetize your blog, you must know how to set up a blog. To read the free guide to know the cheapest way to set up a professional blog then read this article.

6. Mediavine

Mediavine is an ad management company that works directly with ad exchanges and advertisers to boost ad revenue for the publishers. It is famous for generating high revenues for publishers. It works with big names like The Hollywood gossip, TV Fanatic, etc.

To publish ads, Mediavine provides .txt files (codes) that you have to place on your website source code to run the ads. The ads from Mediavine have a faster load time. They publish 5 ads per page.

The minimum traffic that is required to get approval for Mediavine is 50,000 sessions (60,000 pageviews) as per google analytics and the website quality has to be top-notch which makes it far more selective than other ad programs.

Earnings: The bar to get approval is high and so is the earning. The RPM can be up to $30, which is quite high.

Procedure to apply: You can apply by clicking on the apply button on this page and filling the form that comes up. It takes up to 28 days for the whole approval process to get completed. The registration is free of cost.

7. Adblade

Adblade is a content-style native advertising platform. These ads look similar to the content in which they are published. This is the reason why such types of ads get higher clicks because they blend in with the content. And due to the same reason, Adblade also performs well. Adblade currently supports 3,00,000+ websites.

To add an advertisement on your site you have to use the ad codes. For a WordPress site, you can use plugins like Ad Injection which can help you to assign placement of the ads.

The minimum Traffic requirement for getting Adblade approval is 5,00,000 page views per month which makes this program out of reach for small bloggers.

Earnings: Adblade offers CPC or CPM programs for earnings. They offer a CPM rate of $2. Though it is on the lower side, an increase in traffic can have a huge impact on earnings since the ads are native.

Procedure to apply: You can monetize your website by filling in the details on this page. You have to fill in your traffic per month, your website details, and the payment information. Their team generally takes 1-2 business days to review the website. Zero registration fee for publishers.
